Tax Manager

mkrampe@lewis-knopf.com

Michael joined Lewis & Knopf in 2015. As a tax manager, he serves clients in a variety of industries, including farming, medical, construction, retail and real estate. In addition to his client responsibilities, Michael is also a member of the firm's tax committee.

With 25 years of accounting experience, Michael always strives to do his best for his clients. He does this by understanding and listening to what they have to say. In addition, Michael gives his best effort to help them solve their financial problems. He attributes his work success to his parents. They taught Michael the overall importance to have faith and a good work ethic.

Michael's family is his greatest joy in life. He enjoys playing sports and being involved in his children's activities. He is a lifelong resident of Flushing, Michigan, where he lives with his wife, Joanne, and their seven children. Michael believes in having a positive attitude and living life to the fullest, always helping others when given the opportunity.
